

New Black and Plaid Skirts for Fall

Have come in and they are pretty, too. Are you going away? If you are we have some pretty early fall clothes for you. See them.

LOCAL LINES.

—For Dr. Pendley ring 416.
—C. L. Brunson & Co. have moved their flower store to 529 Broadway.
—Chief of Police James Collins has moved his office to Police Judge E. H. Puryear. This was necessitated by the noise from the streets. Wagons passing over the brick streets make such a roaring noise that little can be heard over the telephone.
—Dr. Gilbert, Osteopath, 400 1-2 Broadway. Phone 196.
—Mr. R. L. Nelson, of 1216 Broadway, reported the loss of two dozen fine chickens from his backyard last night.
—One load of our coal will make you an advertiser for us. Bradley Bros. Phone 339.
—Yesterday morning burglars attempted to enter the residence of Mrs. Joseph Bylaw, at 1204 Tennessee street. The police department through error reported it the residence of Mrs. W. D. Thomas where the telephone message came in from.
—The Sun office is prepared to furnish the very latest things in engraved or printed calling cards and invitations of any sort, and is making special prices now.
—The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Knights of Columbus will meet September 12 with Mrs. George Weikel, of West Monroe street.
—We guarantee to please you with Old Taylor, Ky., Lump coal. Phone 339 Bradley Bros.
—This afternoon between 12 and 1 o'clock an excursion train passed through Paducah en route from Covington, Tenn., to Louisville, Ky. Several came here from Cairo and points between Paducah and Cairo to go to Louisville on the train.
—Ladies, get one of those Phoebe Pan Purses at R. D. Clements & company, the latest in purses and a great convenience to the wearer.
—Mr. C. W. Woodbridge, the well-known Illinois Central pattern-maker, residing on Guthrie avenue, reports the loss of five fine chickens from his coop last night. He states that chicken thieves have been visiting the neighborhood for several nights and the residents are procuring shot guns and are going to lay in wait for the thieves.
—City subscribers to the Daily Sun who wish the delivery of their papers stopped must notify our collectors or make their requests direct to The Sun office. No attention will be paid to such orders when given to our carriers, Sun Pub. Co.
—Mr. P. D. Ray, boiler-maker for the Illinois Central, went to Princeton today to have a conference with the claim agent, Col. John C. Gates, relative to injuries sustained several months ago in the local Illinois Central round-house when he was scalded in the fire box of a "live" engine.
—Dr. J. V. Voris, dentist, 200 Fraternity building.

ON THE HEAD.

Negro Section Hand Was Struck by An Unknown.

Jim Baker, a colored section hand, working at Maxon Mills station on the Cairo-Paducah extension of the Illinois Central, is in the hospital here with a sore head which he got for quarreling with another negro, whose name he does not know. Baker says he met the negro near the station last night and they began talking. Baker did not care to bandy words with him after they got mad and started for the darky. The darky picked up a stick, or something hard, tapped Baker on the head, and left for parts unknown. Baker will be in the hospital for some time.

Mr. J. F. Elliott returned this morning from Knoxville, Tenn.
